

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Applicant respectfully requests entry of the above amendments prior to examination of this application. Applicant has carefully considered the art cited in the Information Disclosure Statements filed June 14, 2005 and September 7, 2006, and has entered the above amendments to define structures that are not shown in or made obvious by the prior art.

Conclusion

Applicant respectfully submits that the patent application is in condition for allowance. If, in the opinion of the Examiner, a telephone conference would expedite the prosecution of the subject application, the Examiner is invited to call the undersigned attorney.

No additional claim fees are due. However, in the event that any additional fees are required, the Commissioner is authorized to charge any additional fees due or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account 12-1216.

Respectfully submitted,

/Roger D. Wylie/
